Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 10, 1904.

Averting the Evil. Mildred (very superstitious) - Ob, dear, I would never have accepted you, Jack, if I had remembered it was Fri-

Jack-There's only one way to avert the evil omen, darling. We must very carefully kiss each other seven times at least every seven minutes during the first seventy minutes of our engagement.

William Pitt's last words are said to have been, "My country, oh, how I love my country!" Pitt's butler afterward said that the statesman's dying words were, "I hope the country will do something for Jenkins." The butler was Jenkins, but nobody accepted his testimony and the country certainly did nothing for Jenkins.

Not an Authority.

There are some persons who can't take a joke, but Fogg is not one of them. One of the boys, acquainted with Fogg's frequent changes of abode, asked him which he thought was the cheaper, to move or to pay rent.

"I can't tell you, my dear boy," replied Fogg. "I have always moved."

Friend (to amateur artist)-I suppose you'll give up painting when you mar Amateur-Oh, no! It'll be so convenient and economical when we have to make wedding presents.

Burias. "How much better I like the word burial than 'funeral.' The burial is just the fulfillment of our latest prayers. 'None of self and all of thee.' The poor pettiness of that which is not living and loving and so glorified in him, all buried away, and nothing precious in his sight, and so in ours, can be buried there."—"Letters of Emelie Russell Gurney."

Sporting Blood. heard that Bilgewater jumped out of his yacht and was drowned. Buzzer-Shocking! Did he do it with suicidal intent? Blizzer-Oh, no! He was racing and did it to lighten his boat and thereby

A Mean Trick. "That's the meanest man I ever ran across," said the book agent. "What has he done?"

"Kept me calling day after day, and finally said he didn't care anything about reading, but he enjoyed hearing

The legal duration of a patent in Germany is fifteen years from the date of application, and additional patents expire at the same time as the main patent. Inventions which appertain to articles of food or medicine cannot be patented in Germany.

A Comparison. "How'd ye like the lecturer at the town hall last night, Si?"

"Great! He was a Boston feller, an', I swan, I never laughed so hard in my life. He knew more long words than a negro minstrel."—Baltimore American.

Suicide Prevented.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nervine will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbsater & Sons, Druggists.

Sick Headache.
"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. Resorts of the South.

Resorts of the South.

A beautiful specimen of artistic printing is "Summer in the Land of the Sky," a booklet issued by the passenger department of the Southern Railway, descriptive of the famous resorts of the Virginias and the Carolinas and other Southern States, reached by the Southern. It contains many half tone illustrations showing the most noted of North Carolina's pleasure resorts and boarding houses with rates of each. It is a most useful guide. Copies may be had upon application at ticket offices, or by addressing L. S. Brown, General Agent, Washington, D. C.

World's Fair, St. Louis, Mo., May-November, 1904.

May-November, 1904.

But there is one mistake that we could not possibly make. But there is one mistake that we could not possibly make. Selling trashy goods. We have nothing to do with makers that ever make such stuff, not even for SALES. We have to be extremely careful when we buy for less than things are worth. But you, madam, who don't see the wisdom of paying as much as good goods have to cost, you wen't come to us. Very well, we come to you. Here are good goods for almost as little as you pay for the sort that you are ashamed of. We make very little on what we sell you now. When you have learned your lesson you will be more than glad to pay us and learned your lesson you will be more than glad to pay us and
